"This has been a great season. This group of graduating seniors have a special place in my heart because they were freshmen my 1st year here and it has been really neat watching them grow and mature into fine young men. Their leadership will be greatly missed, but we are grateful for the legacy they have left for the younger kids to follow. I think that if we can pick up next year where we have left off this year then we should expect another successful season. We have a lot of young talented players coming up and I am excited and ready to see what the future holds for Sanger Baseball."

When I think about this team this year the word courage come to mind. Courage can be found in large or small actions, based on principles rather than perceptions. Although displays of courage do not require a crisis, adversity makes courage extremely visible. This team this year had far more courage than they give themselves credit for. It requires courage for individuals to submit themselves to the betterment of the team, to accept a role and perform duties with excellence, and to develop a sense of duty to each other regardless of the circumstances. The main form of courage this team showed was becoming dependable teammates with integrity toward each other.

To the seniors this year I want to thank you for the last three years and all of the hard work and courage you have showed to your team. You will be missed by me and your teammates. All of you will go far because of your character and courage.

Thanks again Lady Indians. - Coach Armstrong

"The 2007 Indian Football team had to overcome heavy graduations from the previous year and several key injuries early in the season. Our team fought hard all year long and ended up being very competitive in district losing three games by a total of 14 points. We were very disappointed about not making the playoffs but I am very proud of the hard work, dedication and determination our team had throughout the season."

both a burden and a bliss,
are the lessons of the man,
in the moment, acquiesce,
lest the future go unprepared.
and then we are left, to know can we bind
our enemies down,
in mind at times in heart,
or no greater than the light,
which has plagued us from the start,
and then we are ruled, to know are we fit.

In Memoriam

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at the close of the day.*

*If my passing has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Boo,

From the minute you were born you have been a total joy & the light of our lives. I always dreaded leaving you every morning & was so happy to see you when I came home each day. Still today I look forward to seeing you walk through the door after your school day is done.

You're such a sweet, funny, smart & totally awesome kid, your Dad & I feel very blessed to be your parents. You know you've been the whole world to your Grandmother since Pop passed away. I know he would have loved you so much & been so proud of you just like we are if he could only have known you.

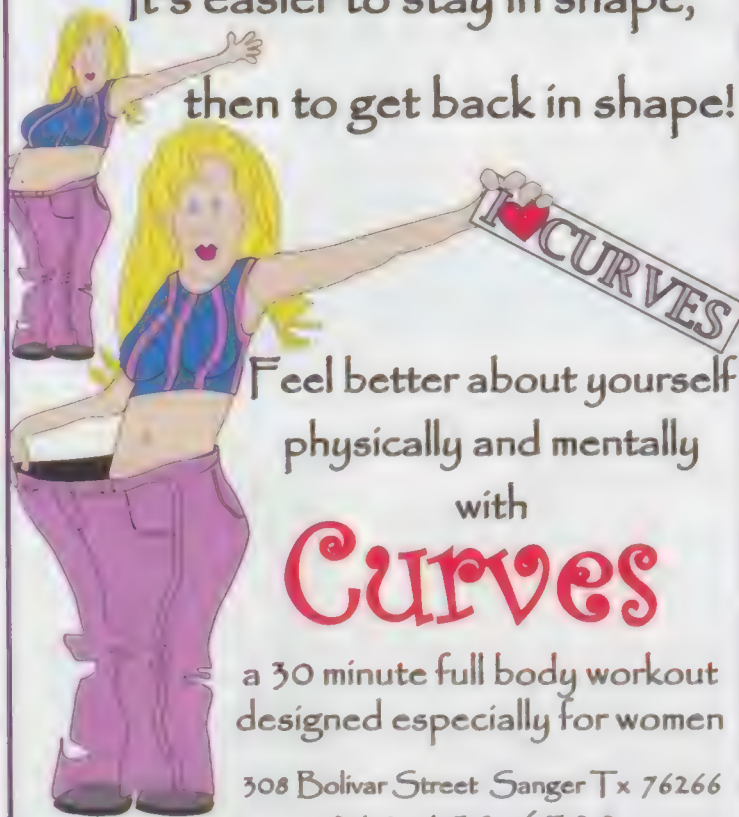

Like your Grandmother always tell you, 'You can do ANYTHING you set your mind to - nothing can stop you except your doubts.' You've always worked hard in school & your good grades have been your reward. I think all your hard work will serve you well when you go to college & beyond.

Never forget to ask yourself, What Would Jesus Do, & let Him guide your life. Likewise, remember all those little 'words of wisdom' and Do's & Don'ts I told you to file away in your brain the past 18 years!

There is absolutely no way we could be any more proud of you than we are. Dream big, word hard & treat others the way you want to be treated.

All our love, Mom, Dad, & Mama

How quickly you have grown up into such a fine young man. It seems like it was such a short time ago when you were a small boy. What a blessing it has been to have you as my son and to watch you grow up. I am so proud of you, the efforts you make, and your accomplishments both in school and even more outside of school. Your talents, gifts, and drive will take you to exciting places in life. Finally, I thank God all the time that He made you just as you are.
Love, Dad

Sean Christopher brings happiness, humor, & enlightenment to everyone who knows him. He's never afraid to challenge someone in their thinking or shrink away from an unfamiliar possibility. He is clever, mischievous and daring; especially when macaroni & cheese & chocolate milk are involved. Life is more fun when he's involved in the project or adventure.
Love, Mom

Ashley,

Since the day you were born, you have been the greatest light in our lives. We have been your audience, your teachers and your greatest fans. You have all of the potential to be whatever you want to be and the natural gifts that will always allow you to excel in anything you try. Set your sights high and adjust in yourself as you would like to be and doing what you would like to do. Take one step in front of the other and always move forward even when times are tough. Believe in yourself. We do and always will. One day, you will find that you are exactly the person you dreamed of being. We celebrate your accomplishments now, the accomplishments of the future, and the special young women you will always be!

Love, Mom & Dad

Now, as you begin this next journey we hope you follow your Christian faith and allow this to be your daily guide. We hope the upcoming journey is safe & fun! Enjoy but stay focused on your goals. We look forward to watching you develop into the person you want to be!

To our Son, Brother, Grandson - It seems just yesterday when you were dependent & now you are independent. You've gone from taking your little brothers bottle away & hiding to have it all for yourself (gone in 3 sucks) Then you were off with RaRa & Papa to Sack-n-Sun for new buckets & telling us "I Do It My Own Self". Having big brother pay you $10 for every hit in baseball to beating him in golf. To carpenter & big buck hunter.

You've gone from MaMa's "Little Man" to grown up young man that we are all so proud of. You filled our dreams the day you were born now it is time for you to fulfill your dreams.
